Work at Home Refund

1. A notarized letter from the employer that the employer allows the employee to work at home and that it is either required by the employer or that the employer benefits from the employee working from their residence must be provided. If working at home is simply a benefit or preference to the employee, the time will not qualify for a refund.
2. The schedule of days worked at home must be a regularly scheduled period of time as approved and determined by the employer. The occasional day or sporadic periods of time worked at home will not qualify for days worked outside of Covington for purposes of a refund.
3. The city, location, or municipality noted as the residence of the employee where the employee claims to perform work from the residence will be notified that the employee has filed for or will receive a refund for the period of time spent in the listed city, location, or municipality. The applicant for refund will be required to execute a form agreeing to the notification of refund to the listed municipality.
